Literacy Center Moves July 8 and Reopens July 15

Literacy Volunteers of Washington County will move from the lower level of the Westerly Public Library to Units 25 and 26 at 93 Tower Street on July 8. We will re-open on July 15 at 9:30 a.m. and staff the center four mornings, Monday through Thursday, and two evenings, Monday and Wednesday. Said Executive Director Mary Lou Gentz, "The new location is about a mile from the center of downtown and offers convenient parking. Please visit us soon!"

Workshop on Fluent Reading Trainer and Tutor Shares

Calling all tutors. Please register for either of these workshops by emailing LitWashCty6@verizon.net.

Join staff on July 22 for a workshop on the recently purchased Fluent Reading Trainer software from Mind-Play. Jean Welsh, PhD, will facilitate the brown bag workshop from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The software is for three web-based licenses and can be used by participants assessed with a CASAS score of 211 or higher and with access to a computer. They must attend an introductory session in the literacy center prior to being given a password. The workshop is limited to fifteen.

On July 28, Barbara Bowen of the professional development center will facilitate tutor shares at 11:00 a.m. in the literacy center and at 6:00 p.m. at Randall's Real Estate in Wakefield. We will discuss the use of authentic materials.
