

This questionnaire is for Stephanie Sichelman's G/T Independent Research project at Reservoir High School. The results will be analyzed and published for you to see.

No Child Left Behind Survey

Each state determines what Adequate Yearly Progress is for that state.

True False (circle one)

If a school fails to meet Annual Yearly Progress two years in a row the students can choose to attend another school.

True False (circle one)

When a school is under the improvement/corrective action category it can be removed from the list after it meets Annual Yearly Progress for four years.

True False (circle one)

Under "No Child Left Behind's" requirements, high school teachers need a Bachelor's Degree, full certification, and a passing grade on the state content (PRAXIS) examination.

True False (circle one)

"No Child Left Behind" is being funded at levels up to $8 billion lower than authorized.

True False (circle one)

Do you teach an assessed course?

English 10 Algebra Biology American Government Not assessed (circle one)

Gender

Male Female (circle one)

Level of Education

BA MA Ph.D. (circle one)

Age

22-30 31-40 41-50 Over 50 (circle one)

Number of Years Teaching

1-5 6-10 11 & up (circle one)

If you have been teaching fewer than 4 years, you have finished this survey. Otherwise, continue.

Have your teaching methods/lesson plans changed since "No Child Left Behind" was enacted?

Yes No (circle one)

How? _____

OVER

Have the requirements of "No Child Left Behind" changed the way you spend your time outside of class?

Yes No (circle one)

How? _____

Do you want the law changed?

Yes No (circle one)

How? _____

Has "No Child Left Behind" changed your attitude about teaching?

Yes No (circle one)

If yes,

Negatively Positively (circle one)

Do you have more work to do since "No Child Left Behind" was enacted?

Yes No (circle one)

Explain: _____

Do you think the "No Child Left Behind" legislation as it currently stands will contribute to decreasing of the achievement gap among students of different races?

Yes No (circle one)

How long do you think this will take?

5-10 years 11-15 years 16-20 years (circle one)

Please return to the main office by April 16 so questionnaires can be ponied to me c/o Dr. Parrott at Reservoir High School