QUESTIONS

When starting a new game in one of the three Scenario modes (Easy, Normal, and Expert), you'll be asked a series of four questions. Your answers determine what cards you receive, which in turn decide what class your character will be. There are two different questions for each grouping of cards. You WILL see each of the four groups, but which style of question you get will be completely random.

Before immediately deciding upon which class to play, I recommend just following along with the questions once or twice. Your results might surprise you!

First Question

"You have come to the market looking for a new sword. You go past the crowds into the weapon shop and there you find a marvelous looking sword. But the sword's price was far from what you could pay. When you were just glazing (sic) at the sword, the shopkeeper goes to the bathroom for a while. There were no other customer in the shop besides you, and no one is looking. And it is still very much crowded with people outside."

>> Steal the sword and run away.

[Shade Card]

>> Buy a cheaper sword.

[Twilight Card]

>> Look for a way to make money.

[Shine Card]

-OR-

"While walking (sic) along the square, you find people gathered around. A clown was being applauded pulling out some pigeons from his pocket and flying them away. In front (sic) of the clown, there was a hat turned over with a few coins the audience threw in. And now the clown began to perform a magic using cards. However, you saw that magic before and already know that it's just a fraud trick..."

>> Go past by.

[Twilight Card]

>> Stop and look.

[Shine Card]

>> Tell one of the audience how it's done.

[Shade Card]

Second Question

"You were a mere footsoldier, but your bravery from the last expedition was recognized and got to receive reward from the king. At the palace, the king commends you and tells you to choose one of three rewards freely. Which reward will you choose?"

>> Fancy jewelry.

[Fair Card]

>> A storage full of wheat.

[Sacred Book Card]

>> The status of an officer.

[Emblem Card]

-OR-

"You are the one praised as the world's finest sculptor. But your first apprentice has started his own career and achieved enough skill to compete with you. The landlord commands the two of you to compete for a statue of the goddess to donate to the temple. The two of you were invited to the landlord's home and showed each one's piece. And when you saw your apprentice's work, you felt beaten. But the landlord has chosen your work. What will you do..."

>> Recieve the honor.

[Emblem Card]

>> Admit your defeat and retire.

[Sacred Book Card]

>> Suggest to make it once more.

[Fair Card]

Third Question

"A strong earthquake has occured and damaged the church wall. If not repaired at once, it is likely to collapse. But the priest blocks the magical tombstone strongly. The most damaged wall is near the magical tombstone and if it isn't moved, repair is impossible. But it is said that if the magical tombstone is moved, the magic seal breaks and disaster would occur. You were the one ordered to repair the church... What will you do?"

>> Go on with the repair.

[Karma Card]

>> Repair to the possible extent.

[Dream Card]

-OR-

"You have found a young fox caught in a hunter's trap. You felt pity, but the wounds were deep and seemed it wouldn't live for long even if you let it free. And it goes against hunters' rules to touch other hunter's catch. So you decide to leave but the young fox cries as if it were begging you. Will you let go of the young fox?"

>> Let the fox go.

[Dream Card]

>> Leave it as it is.

[Karma Card]

Fourth Question

"You have decided to go together with a man you got to know during your travel. Littel (sic) after going inside a deep forest, the man sprained his ankle stepping in a muddy ground. He is able to walk somehow, but it seems impossible to reach the next inn while daylight. If you turn back, it is possible to return to the inn you stayed last night although you get to waste a day for it. The man insists on going forward not to mind him, but..."

>> Go on by yourself.

[Ego Card]

>> Go back with the man.

[Vacant Card]

>> Carry the man on your back.

[Trust Card]

-OR-

"You were on a night patrol and ran into something strange. A beast you have never seen before had a poor livestock in its custody. It could be the magical beast rumored to appear these days. Fortunately, it doesn't know you are looking. If you follow it, you might get to find out where it lives. What will you do?"

>> Follow it alone.

[Ego Card]

>> Call for backup.

[Trust Card]

>> Forget what you have seen.

[Vacant Card]

CHARACTER CLASSES

As mentioned before, in Scenario play, the four cards you recieve determine what class you are. There are three possible combinations for each class, along with a special hidden character that can be unlocked with an appropriate name (when available; they are case sensitive).

FIGHTER (Estana)

"You are power struggling between dream and nothing."

Cards: Dream, Emblem, Shade, Vacant
 Dream, Emblem, Shine, Vacant
 Dream, Emblem, Twilight, Vacant

Attack: Flying Kick [RANGE: 1]

Becomes BOUNTY HUNTER when named Mail.

Dialog

Post Generation Information:

"You have attack power and swiftness. High defense power will be of help, too. Although the magic power is a bit low, you have enough makings for a master."

Multiplayer description:

"Attack, defense, swiftness are quite high. But has low magical power. Close combat is possible and its specialty is flying kick."

DUKE (Algiros)

"You are a power concentrated on realizing your dream."

Cards: Dream, Ego, Emblem, Twilight
 Dream, Ego, Emblem, Shine
 Dream, Ego, Emblem, Shade

Attack: Rapier Thrust [RANGE: 1]

Dialog

Post Generation Information:

"You have magical powers and swiftness. Although defense power and moving range are low, you have enough makings for a master."

Multiplayer Description:

"Attack, magical power and swiftness are quite high. But defense is very low. Another weak point is that its moving range is only 3. It can attack adjacent enemy with the sword."

Attack: Book of Ys [RANGE: 1]

Dialog

Post Generation Information:

"You have high magical power. Although defense and speed are not enough, you have enough makings for a master."

Multiplayer Description:

"Goddesses worshiped in the ancient city.
Being goddesses, magical powers are very high.
The one on the right is Leah, and Feena is to the
them."
