"Cead Míle Fáilte"

Here's cead míle fáilte to friend and to rover.
'Tis a greeting that's Irish as Irish can be.
It means, "you are welcome a thousand times over" wherever you come from, whoever you be.

You are always welcome at

Swim and relax in luxurious accommodations at

The Brass Lantern.

This unusual getaway, located on a very private, 20 acre site in the lush rolling countryside of southwestern Iowa, features a separate guest house complete with a 40-foot heated indoor pool for your year-round pleasure and relaxation.

Each spacious, air-conditioned guest room, tastefully furnished with your comfort in mind, includes a queen bed with luxury linens, sitting area with fireplace, sofa and easy chairs, telephone, TV, DVD/VCR and stereo, and a private bath with luxury toiletries and spa-massage tub and shower.

Sliding glass doors from each room open onto a large, well-appointed deck, which over-looks the pool and provides a dining and entertainment area with comfortable wicker furniture, DISH Network TV, DVD/VCR, and stereo CD player. The Guest House is also WIFI enabled. An adjoining, fully-furnished kitchenette, includes a beverage-stocked refrigerator and filled cookie jar.

Next door, the 1918 antique-filled farm home provides a pleasant library for browsing, a large and comfortable gathering room and an elegant dining room, where you will be served a gourmet breakfast featuring house specialties, including freshly ground and brewed Green Mountain™ coffee.

The perfect place for a romantic getaway, a relaxing retreat, or a family vacation. Honeymoon packages (first and second!), gift certificates, and whole house rental available. Reservations are required.

Located just 1.5 miles east of Greenfield, The Brass Lantern is only 15 minutes from I-80, 60 minutes from Des Moines, 90 minutes from Omaha, and 180 minutes from Kansas City.
