

Brownie Troop 2896 Notes

March 28, 2007

Today we earned the “Brownie Girl Scouts Throughout the World” try-it. We learned what Brownies are called in different parts of the world, and we have recently received postcards from many other troops throughout the US and the world. So, we read about what those troops do and found out where they are on the map.

We were also very happy to finally receive replies to the letters we sent to our pen pal troop in New Hampshire. We wrote letters back to them and hope that we can get individual addresses soon so the girls can continue corresponding on their own.

Thanks to everyone who helped out with cookie sales this year. We are done! We will talk about distributing the gifts of caring and figure out how we are going to work in a trip to Hershey Park sometime between now and the next meeting.

QSP magazine sales are starting; if the packets are not in this packing, they will be distributed sometime before spring break.

Please keep the following upcoming dates in mind.

March 31—this Saturday morning—let me know if you can do the Pohick Bay cleanup

April 13—Music try-it scheduled for that evening

June 2-3—Encampment

June 9—Sing-along on the Mall

Next meeting: April 11 (Wednesday)
