

Brownie Troop 2896 Notes

May 16, 2007

Time to get ready for encampment!! This is the last meeting before encampment, so part of the meeting today was dedicated to a review of what to pack for camp. The two big points to remember are that they need to carry everything they pack, and check the weather before you pack. They are bringing packing lists home, and more info will follow via email.

They are also bringing home swaps to complete. There is a direction sheet included with their packet, but they will need help with putting holes in the top of the canisters and getting the plastic lace threaded through.

Thanks to everyone who supported the QSP magazine sales! Cookie sales incentives are being distributed today, but they are nothing big. You might need to remind your daughter that the big reward for cookie sales is not the toys, but the money to pay for camp in a few weeks, Kings Dominion in September (tentative date: September 8), and camping at Hershey next June (tentative date: June 6-8, 2008)!

It is also time to start thinking about next year. The packing this week includes a registration form. If you would like to register your daughter again for next year, mark any changes to the form in red (most changes are probably to the grade and the number of years in scouting—many of those seem to be wrong), and return the form to Kathie Stockman by the next meeting (June 6) with a check to Troop 2896 for $10 ($20 and two forms if you are registering yourself as an adult). It's too early to tell when meetings will be held next year—I know I don't want to meet after school (or actually at any time) in Halley. I'm leaning towards late Sunday afternoon meetings, which seem to work well for one of my other kids. Any suggestions for time/places are welcome.

Next meeting: June 6—last meeting, with Court of Awards ceremony
