

Brownie Troop 2896 Notes

May 22, 2006

Today was Dancercize day! We earned the Dancercize try-it today with help from “Miss MaryLane” (who also teaches free Kinderdance workshops at the Borders in Springfield on Fridays at 10:30am, for those of you with younger children). This is the last try-it we will be working on for this school year.

At the end of our next meeting, we will have another Court of Awards ceremony, where the girls will get all the patches/badges they have earned since the last ceremony. There are quite a few! We will also be releasing the information about summer activities so the girls can earn the “Summer Fun Patch” over the summer. To help with planning for that, please return the form for summer vacation plans ASAP.

The final meeting isn't really a meeting; it's just a party! We will go bowling right after school on June 19th, which is the next to last day of school. Permission slips have been emailed, or you can sign hardcopies in this week's packing.

Next meeting: June 5
