

Improv and Acting for Kids & Teens

At the Two Roads Theater in Studio City

Classes Begin June 5th

Kids Improving uses improv techniques to build confidence in scene work and auditions. The supportive and fun environment helps kids learn to trust their instincts and approach the work with of sense of contagious joy.

- Classes for ages 5 - 18
- Featuring industry guest speakers and teachers
- 15 students per class

All classes taught by Lisa Gerber. Lisa has over 15 years of experience in the entertainment industry. As a child and teen she worked consistently in television, film and stage. Lisa has a BFA in acting from Emerson College and a Masters degree in Education from Pepperdine University. She has scouted and developed new talent for The Laugh Factory in Hollywood and worked as a casting associate.
