VOLUME 1, ISSUE 3 JUNE-JULY 2004

A NEW COURSE IN OHIO... UPPER SANDUSKY!

Ten in the ground and eight to go. Thanks to the hard work of the Upper Sandusky Parks Department employees, the front nine and hole 18 of the Upper Sandusky Reservoir Park DGC is playable. Their professionalism cannot compare to any in the area. Most of the other courses installed have been through the efforts and physical work of local disc golfers. NOT HERE! The Upper Parks Department did an excellent job with installation and continues exceptional maintenance of the course grounds. We look forward to the installation of the back nine. (Hopefully late July) Shortly after the completion of the course, the parks department will be planning a Grand Opening. We have plans to draw citizens of the community with incentives as well as a fund raiser for the local Red Cross. Pending some support of local sponsors, refreshments and disc golf accessories will be available for a nominal cost which will benefit the Red Cross and the disc golf course. There will also be a raffle for a disc golf target to be given away at end of the day. For those interested, a casual tournament will take place with many divisions available and prizes awarded to top finishers for the day. MOODGolf is encouraging Ohio's top Pro and Advanced golfers to join the event and display some exceptional golf.

STILL HOPING FOR SUPPORT IN MARION

Currently Marion is at a stand still with the development of the course for Sawyer Ludwig Park in Marion OH. We have slowed down on sponsorship money coming to the Park Department. If you or your friends have any ideas for contacts, Please pass this information on to Ken Rollins at above listed number. In the meantime, we will be meeting with Larry Bigford to walk the park and get approval for the design of the nine hole course. There is high hopes for the course to be installed by the end of summer. Physical Education instructors are excited about the new activity and has allowed MOODGolf to set up a day for the students as soon as the fall quarter starts.

YMCA Activities:

On July 27, 2004 (6pm) we will be assisting the Marion YMCA with this years Corporate Challenge. As in the past, a temporary nine hole course will be set up for participating teams to compete in Disc Golf. This year the course will be set up at Sawyer Ludwig Park. Feel free to come out and support the teams as well as the efforts of MOODGolf.

Great Job Guys! See you on the course.

EXCITING DEVELOPMENTS

JULY 1, 2004

MOODGolf will be participating in this years Yard Day Competition a MCI. It is projected that 500+ adult males will learn of Disc Golf and some basics of the sport. They will learn of areas of OHIO and the USA that host courses so that they may try this activity and share with their family after their return home.
