WORK DAYS AT SAWYER

Sadly the pictures are from early May. Since that great work day little has been done to complete the long awaited back nine at the Sawyer Ludwig DGC. Many events and incidents have caused a delay in work schedule coordination.

Many of the members are anxious to get going and seal the fate of our cool course. Please look at your calander and see what days/times that you can contribute. Send your convenient dates to moodgolf@yahoo.com

Many would like to see the course completed. Even the sponsors have had concerns. Lets see what will come of this. The financial conclusion of the course is near as well. All should work out with a little hope and will.

FROM THE DESK OF MOODGOLF

- A very heartfelt thanks!
To all that attended the work days at Sawyer Ludwig DGC. With all your altruistic volunteer work we will soon see the compensation in the form of a great course. Many of you know that the back nine will challenge and frustrate players, but should prove to be a fun course just the same. If we can group together just ~4 more times, the wooded holes will be ready. Keep a watchful eye out for communication about coming work days. Thanks Again!

Gordon Holton (1962-2005)

GORDON HOLTON PASSES AWAY

The following is from the Delaware (Ohio) Gazette:

Gordon Robert Holton

Gordon Robert Holton, 42, of Delaware, died June 2, 2005. He was a gifted artist and craftsman. He was an avid disc golfer and will be sadly missed by his extended disc golf family. He is survived by his mother, Janet Deans Holton of Luckey; brothers, Bruce (Sybil) Holton of Rochester, N.Y., Gene (Heather) Holton of Buffalo, N.Y., and Ken Holton; sisters, Susan Tabor of Gibsonburg, and Pam Gordon of Mount Vernon; a maternal aunt, Nancy (Skip) Bub of Delmar, N.Y.; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

A private service was held in his honor.

Memorial contributions may be made to Habitat for Humanity.

On June 4, 2005, Gordon's Family was generous to the local disc golf community of Central Ohio. We all meet at the Brent Hambrick Memorial DGC to meet Gordon's family to take part in the final resting place and service for Gordon. Many local disc golfers attended from such places as Medina, Columbus, Delaware, Ashley, and even Kentucky. A sad time for many of us. We will miss our Friend and always honor and think of Gordon during that great shot, when teaching others about the sport, or simply dreaming of a new course!
