Band Bio/Synopsis

"BARGAIN® The Who Tribute captures the sights and sounds of a vintage Who concert in exacting detail. No expense has been spared, as Bargain performs in full costume, complete with on-stage theatrics that are trademarks of Who concerts.

Dedicated to performing the most accurate renditions of Who songs, the band uses carefully selected instruments and amplifiers that reproduce the Who's unmistakable live sound. Bargain is also the only Who Tribute band in the world to perform with a full laser show, which The Who first pioneered in the 1970's.

Bargain was formed in 2004 in New Jersey and tours nationally, performing at theaters, festivals, private parties and local concert venues. The band is comprised of Rich Denninger as Keith Moon (Drums), Martin Beck as John Entwistle (Bass), Aaron Howard as Pete Townshend (Guitar), and Todd Rotert as Roger Daltrey (Vocals).
