You have 10 minutes to respond to the following:

- What may be meant by Martin Luther King's claim that "Nothing is more dangerous than sincere ignorance and conscientious stupidity", or the following lines by W B Yeats?

"The best lack all conviction, while the worst are full of passionate intensity."

- "If the frog tells you that the crocodile is dead, do not doubt it." What might this Ghanaian proverb suggest about who it is that provides the justification for a knowledge claim? What is the difference between "I am certain" and "It is certain"? Is conviction sufficient for a knowledge claim to be validated? What are the implications of accepting passionate, personal belief as knowledge?
