THE RULES AND FINE PRINT

(Yes, we know, we hate rules too.

But contests have to have rules and fine print.

There's a rule about it, written in fine print, you know.)

Submissions include drawings, sketches, or any other graphic representation of your design idea, or a written description of a concept detailed enough to give us a picture of your design idea in our heads (which our top notch graphic designer can turn into, well, a graphic design).

(WARNING: Legal mumbo jumbo ahead!) By submitting your designs and ideas, you give us permission to use your designs and ideas, and all designs and ideas become the property of Chesapeake Squares, Inc. By submitting your designs and ideas, you give Chesapeake Squares, Inc. permission to use the designs and ideas in any way we determine appropriate, including combining your ideas and designs with other submissions. You agree not to seek compensation from Chesapeake Squares, Inc. for use of your submission, and you agree not to seek copyright protection of any design or idea submitted.

Chesapeake Squares Club Members will review all submissions, and we may select one design from all those submitted, or we may combine two or more ideas, designs, or concepts into the final T-shirt design. We may use none of the submissions and just come up with something on our own. The decision of the Club Members will be final. (Hey, it's our shirt after all.)

If we select and combine more than one design, idea or concept submitted (multiple winners) into the final design, each person whose design, idea or concept is used will WIN a FREE T-SHIRT and the braggin' rights that go along with having your idea plastered on our new PTOH T-shirt. If we select a single design, idea, or concept and make modifications to it for the final design, the person whose design, idea, or concept was used as the basis of the final design will WIN a FREE T-SHIRT. (Yes, you still get braggin' rights.)

If you come up with something so fantastic that it completely wows us and we use your complete design, and only your complete design, with nothing added and nothing taken away (single winner), not only will you win a free T-shirt, but you will also WIN one FREE REGISTRATION to Pass The Ocean, Hon 2010.
