CLARKSBURG SPORTS ASSOCIATION NAMES STEPHEN WALKER AS COMMISSIONER OF FOOTBALL

CLARKSBURG, MD, MARCH 22, 2007: Clarksburg Sports Association, Inc., a youth sports organization serving the greater Clarksburg area, has named Stephen Walker as Commissioner of the CSA Football program. Walker will continue direction of the association's highly successful first year program as successor to outgoing Commissioner, Tom Culliton.

Stephen Walker, a collegiate player and coaching veteran will succeed departing football commissioner Tom Culliton, CSA President Kevin Hutto announced today. Hutto also commented on outgoing Commissioner Tom Culliton, "Tom has done a tremendous job at developing the foundation of this program and CSA is at a distinct advantage going into our second season because of Tom's efforts."

Hutto went on to comment, "Stephen's prior youth coaching experience and sports management pedigree gives us great faith that he will build on Tom's accomplishments and lead CSA Football to new levels of excellence and achievement."

Outgoing CSA Football Commissioner Tom Culliton said he is impressed with Walker's credentials and his interactions with CSA athletes and parents. "Stephen was an active part of the CSA football program last year as a parent and is well suited to carry forward the philosophies and mission of this organization. CSA is fortunate to have such a qualified individual to lead this program."

"My family and I are very excited to be part of this growing organization," says Walker. "I am honored to have been appointed Commissioner and Head Coach and look forward to beginning my tenure. CSA has developed a solid reputation built on teamwork and integrity. With its visionary leadership, academic accountability, strong partnerships, and volunteer network, CSA is quickly becoming the recognized leader in local youth sports."

CSA Football Director, Stephen Forsythe, commented, "Stephen Walker was our ideal candidate as Coach Culliton's successor. Our Board is confident that Stephen's experience, knowledge and professionalism will translate into an exceptional experience for our CSA football families."

The CSA football program will begin its second season in the fall of 2008.
