CLARKSBURG SPORTS ASSOCIATION NAMES DARYL GRAHAM AS COMMISSIONER OF TENNIS

CLARKSBURG, MD, MARCH 20, 2008: Clarksburg Sports Association, Inc., a youth sports organization serving the greater Clarksburg area, has named Daryl Graham as CSA Tennis Commissioner. Graham, a certified fitness professional and former New Jersey state champion hurdler, will join the CSA team to lead its tennis program.

"Daryl's passion for tennis and his experience as a professional fitness trainer brings multiple benefits to our tennis program and our CSA families," commented CSA Executive Director, Kevin Hutto.

Brian Fankhauser, CSA Director of Tennis commented, "I would like to acknowledge Daryl's outstanding commitment and professionalism which has quickly contributed to the growth and quality of the CSA tennis program, and I have confidence that Daryl will provide the foundational stability needed to continue this momentum in the years ahead."

"I am thrilled to use my years of fitness experience and tennis knowledge to contribute to the continuing growth of the CSA organization," said Graham. "CSA is a perfect fit for me and my family, I could not have hoped for a better volunteer situation to make a difference for our youth and community. The mission and vision of CSA are exactly what I was hoping to find in a community based youth program. I am excited to be working with such a dedicated and professional group of volunteers."

Fankhauser went on to comment, "Daryl is great with the kids and his patience is certainly a virtue. The tennis families I have spoken to are very enthusiastic about having Daryl on the CSA team. His work ethic and dedication to our youth will certainly translate into a winning program for years to come."

The 2008 CSA Tennis season is currently underway and off to a great start with over 50 youth participating in the spring sessions.
