CSA COMMISSIONERS LYNN ELLIS AND RENISE FREEMAN RECEIVE PRESIDENT BUSH'S VOLUNTEER SERVICE AWARD

CLARKSBURG, MD, FEBRUARY 20, 2008: Clarksburg Sports Association, Inc., a youth sports organization serving the greater Clarksburg area, is proud to announce that CSA Cheer Commissioner, Lynn Ellis, and CSA Track & Field Commissioner, Renise Freeman have recently been recognized by Lockheed Martin Chairman, President and CEO Bob Stevens on qualifying for President Bush's President's Volunteer Service Award for their 2007 volunteer hours.

"Your generous efforts in helping to meet community needs are greatly appreciated by CSA as well as by those who have benefited from your charitable service", commented CSA Chief Financial Officer, Kathy Sloan.

Sloan went on to comment, "CSA is thankful to have such giving individuals on our team; you are a true source of inspiration and admiration."

The President's Volunteer Service Award recognizes dedication to volunteer service and signifies that recipients have served their community and their country with distinction. Through their volunteer efforts, recipients demonstrate values that make our nation strong and helping to build a culture of citizenship, service and responsibility in America.

CSA Executive Director Kevin Hutto commented, "CSA is pleased to acknowledge and honor your valuable contributions to others and we extend our thanks for supporting our community through your strong volunteer spirit!"

The 2008 CSA Spring season is currently underway and off to a great start with over 300 youth participating in multiple sports programs.
