CSA SPONSORS CHALLENGER BASEBALL TEAM

CLARKSBURG, MD, APRIL 20, 2008: Clarksburg Sports Association, Inc., a youth sports organization serving the greater Clarksburg area, is pleased to announce the expansion of its baseball program to include a Challenger baseball team in the Frederick Challenger Little League.

Challenger baseball provides an opportunity for players with physical or developmental disabilities to participate in Baseball to the maximum of their individual abilities.

John O'Brien, CSA board member, commented "CSA is committed to offering the community's youth a variety of outlets for after-school physical activity while teaching important life principles through sport, no matter their background, affiliations or personal challenges. We can meet kids' right where they are and the impetus behind the formation of the CSA Challenger Baseball team, as with all of our sports teams, was based upon community demand. CSA has been offering baseball at both the recreational & select levels for two years now and so adding another tier of baseball was not only an ambition, but a natural expansion for us as well!"

Frederick Challenger President Guy Berry commented, "We are pleased that CSA has entered a Challenger team this year. CSA's mission and vision are closely aligned with our organizational philosophy and we look forward to a mutually rewarding relationship for years to come!"

CSA Executive Director Kevin Hutto commented, "There was obviously an opportunity for CSA to respond, and that's why we are here, to serve the needs of our growing community. Every athlete matters regardless of ability and will be given the opportunity to participate and improve his or her sports knowledge and skills while learning vital character values, and CSA is committed to providing sports programs inclusive of ALL area children."

The 2008 CSA Challenger team is off to a great start with over 15 youth participating. To learn more about how to get involved with the Challenger program or to register, contact Kevin Hutto at 301-775-2615.
