CLARKSBURG SPORTS ASSOCIATION NAMES ED KOSTOLANSKY AS DIRECTOR OF LACROSSE

CLARKSBURG, MD, AUGUST 27, 2008: Clarksburg Sports Association, Inc., a youth sports organization serving the greater Clarksburg area, has named Ed Kostolansky as CSA Lacrosse Director.

Kostolansky, former President of the Potomac Chapter of US Lacrosse and Secretary for the Maryland State Lacrosse Coaches Association, will join the CSA Board of Directors leadership team.

Kostolansky has an extensive Lacrosse pedigree and is the Head Scout for the Washington Bayhawks in Major League Lacrosse and Assistant Boys Lacrosse Coach at Clarksburg H.S.

David Moylan, CSA Lacrosse Commissioner commented on Kostolansky's appointment, "Ed brings a wealth of professional experience to our organization. He's coached high school lacrosse at Seneca Valley H.S., Paint Branch H.S. and Corning East H.S. (NY). He has received numerous accolades from his peers including the Maryland State Lacrosse Coaches Association Outstanding Service Award in 2003 and the Corning East Lacrosse Alumni Association "Giving Back to the Game" Award in 2004. We are very fortunate to have such a highly qualified board member such as Ed."

Kostolansky is a native of Corning, New York and played lacrosse at Corning East High School and at Boston College. Following graduation, he played for the Croydon Lacrosse Club in London, England and the Potomac Lacrosse Club (Clyde's LC) in the United States Club Lacrosse Association.

"I am excited about the opportunity to serve on the CSA Board, to help guide the organization towards our vision and to grow the game of lacrosse here in the greater Clarksburg area for future generations," Kostolansky said. "It's an opportune time to be involved in such an important endeavor and I look forward to contributing to the continued success of the organization and our student-athletes." Kostolansky continued, "As a growing community, there is a unique opportunity here at CSA to influence the direction of youth sports which is developing competitive programs where our players will be an academic, ethical, and athletic credit to their school, community and to themselves."

Moylan added, "We are very excited to announce our inaugural Lacrosse season in spring 2009 and are well positioned for success under Ed's leadership."
