CLARKSBURG SPORTS CAMPS TO SERVE AREA FAMILIES BEGINNING SUMMER 2009

CLARKSBURG, MD, AUGUST 27, 2008: Clarksburg Sports Association, Inc., Clarksburg's innovative youth sports organization, has announced another first, the formation of Clarksburg Sports Camps. Beginning in the summer of 2009, Clarksburg Sports Camps will offer twelve different youth summer camp opportunities with multiple scheduling options and price points. Clarksburg Sports Camp programs offer a structured approach to skill development and sport strategies and serves as an alternative to more expensive specialty camps for young athletes. Each individual camp will be branded with the Coyote label easily identifying the origin of the program with its up-county location.

John Viqueira, Clarksburg Sports Camps co-founder commented on this latest development, "The idea behind the Clarksburg Sports Camps was to bring likeminded organizations and individuals together for the benefit of our community and the area families we serve. There is a clear value proposition here which is to develop sustaining relationships with organizations and individuals who view this as an opportunity to collaborate on such an important service considering the time, scheduling and financial demands placed on today's busy families. This cohesive philosophy and sustainable delivery model will serve as the foundation for the future of youth sports camps in Clarksburg."

The overall goals of the camps are consistency in quality instruction, convenience and value. By providing a healthy and safe camp environment and a curriculum based on sports fundamentals and fun, Clarksburg Sports Camps hope to inspire a lifetime of sports passion and physical fitness.

CSA Executive Director Kevin Hutto added, "The input we received from our area families was that they wanted a camp program that was flexible, affordable and close to home. The Clarksburg Sports Camps model was developed with those requirements in mind. Camp Directors are highly qualified middle/high school coaches & local professionals who are vested in our community and our kids. The support from our area coaches and professionals has been exceptional."

"The Bethesda Big Train baseball program is excited to bring over 10 years of baseball camp experience to the Clarksburg Sports Camps this summer", said Big Train Team Manager and Baseball Camp Director Sal Colangelo. "Our camp pitching coach, Bill Sizemore, has worked with several collegiate and professional baseball teams and brings his nearly 30 years of experience coaching young players with him to the Clarksburg Sports Baseball Camp." Colangelo continued, "We are looking forward to working with Clarksburg Sports Camps this summer and establishing a legacy for high quality program instruction for future generations."
