CLARKSBURG SPORTS ASSOCIATION NAMES TAMMY LAYMAN AS COMMISSIONER OF POM PONS

CLARKSBURG, MD, DECEMBER 10, 2006: Clarksburg Sports Association, Inc., a youth sports league serving the greater Clarksburg area, has named Tammy Layman as Commissioner of the CSA Pom Pons program.

"We could not have hoped to find a more qualified individual to lead our Poms program," Executive Director, Kevin Hutto, commented recently. "Tammy's wealth of experience and career achievements is remarkable. She has exceptional knowledge of the sport and is highly respected in the community, which makes her perfectly suited to lead this program."

"I am really excited and flattered to have the opportunity to serve as CSA's Poms Commissioner," said Layman. "The opportunity to develop and implement a Poms program from the beginning does not come along very often. I look forward to building a program that recognizes the value of relationships where our coaches can have a positive impact in the lives of our young people. It's important for our youth to develop a love for the sport and have fun in the process."

Hutto also commented that "our Board was very impressed with Tammy's leadership qualities. Her enthusiasm is contagious and she has a genuine passion for the youth in our community. Tammy is already hard at work planning for our inaugural Pom season for fall 2007. Clarksburg families can expect a high quality program under Tammy's leadership."
