

National Leadership

Spiritual Covering
National Executive Consultant Bishop Ralph L. Dennis
National Executive Committee
National General Board	National Executive Board
	Supreme National Advisor/CEO Visionary Founder Shirley K. Russell
	President Curtis M. Brown
	Vice President of Fraternity Affairs Clarence E. Patterson
	Vice President of Sorority Affairs Starling M. Williams
	Vice President of Training & Development Juanita Long
	Vice President of Expansion Nekia D. Jones
	Recording Secretary Cherie L. Nichols
	Corresponding Secretary Kenya N. Brown
	Treasurer VACANT
	Director of Ministries Ranae Jackson
	Historian Femi Estrada-Petersen
	Assistant Secretary VACANT
Public Relations Manager Brian K. Johnson
Regional Directors	Greater Baltimore Region Derek LaBoo/Shalyta LaBoo
	DC Metro Region John Mullen/Candice Bowie
	Delmar Region Brian Ajayi/Stacey Suggs
	Garden State Region Jon V. Young/Jessica Moreland
	Three Rivers Region Victor L. Foyles/TaNikka Sheppard
	North Carolina Region Ashley Fowler
	Southern Florida Region Courtney VanBrakle
	Empire State Region Terri Cann
	Lone Star State Region Olney Edmonson

Bishop Ralph L. Dennis
National Executive Consultant
ralph.dennis@alphanuomega.org

Bishop Ralph L. Dennis is an Honorary brother of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. He is the Senior Pastor of Kingdom Worship Center in Towson, Maryland and Columbia Family Worship Center, in Columbia, Maryland. He is also the Presiding Prelate of Kingdom Fellowship Covenant Ministries, Inc. a synergistic fellowship of Christian churches, ministries, and businesses that recognize the need for networking, accountability, fellowship, resources and apostolic covering. He is CEO and President of R.L. Dennis Ministries, which takes pride in training, equipping, empowering and mobilizing leaders. He is the Vice President of Fiscal Affairs for the Joint College of African American Pentecostal Bishops Congress based in Cleveland, Ohio. He is also a member of the International Coalition of Apostles headquartered in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Bishop Dennis makes available to the Body his keen understanding of church government and divine order. He loves teaching church leaders on subjects relative to equipping the saints in the 21st century; the kingdom anointing; enriching and challenging audiences to hear and obey. His fatherly anointing has blessed many bishops, pastors and ministry leaders across the nation.

Bishop Dennis' vision is to see the church come to its full maturity and responsibility of purpose, thus rising into a New Kingdom dimension and taking dominion in the earth.

He co-shares his vision with his wife, Deborah. They share the blessing of three adult sons, two daughters-in-law and four grandchildren.

Back to Top

Visionary Founder Shirley K. Russell
Supreme National Advisor/CEO
shirley.russell@alphanuomega.org

Visionary Founder Shirley K. Russell is the vessel whom God has used to birth the vision of Alpha Nu Omega, Incorporated. She currently serves in the capacity of Supreme National Advisor. Visionary Founder Russell is a dynamic woman of God who is a gift to the Body of Christ. She also remains a mathematics instructor at Morgan State University, where she continues to receive high accolades as a dedicated faculty member. Sister Russell holds the vision of Alpha Nu Omega, Incorporated close to her heart, making sure that the organization remains true to its firm foundation - Jesus Christ.

Back to Top

Curtis M. Brown
National President
curtismbrown@alphanuomega.org

While matriculating at Morgan State University on a full academic and ROTC scholarship, Curtis served as the Marketing Director of the MSU Spokesman student newspaper. The experience gained through this work motivated him to form his own marketing company - Unique Images. In 1991, Curtis accepted his salvation through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ and received the baptism of the Holy Spirit. In March of 1991, Curtis was inducted into the prestigious brotherhood - Alpha Nu Omega Fraternity, Inc. He immediately went to work, being elected Alpha Chapter President in September of 1991. He served as president until his graduation in May of 1992. Curtis graduated with honors with a BS in Marketing from the School of Business at Morgan State University. He also received the Student Achievement Award in Marketing for earning the highest GPA in his discipline.

In 1994, the National Board of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. commissioned Curtis and a group of Alumni to form what is now known as the Baltimore/ Washington Alumni Chapter of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. Curtis served as the chartering chapter president until the death of his line brother - the late National President Erwin Page-Mouzon on March 25, 1995. The National Board then called upon Curtis to serve as the National President. He has served as the National President ever since.

In 2003, Curtis was ordained an Elder by Bishop Ralph L. Dennis of Kingdom Worship Center and Kingdom Fellowship Covenant Ministries. It is at Kingdom Worship Center that Curtis serves as the Chief Financial Officer.

Curtis recently received his MBA in Accounting. He and his wife Kenya N. Brown reside in Owings Mills, MD where they are raising their three children, Jannay (15), Destiny (12), and Justus (8) in the fear and admonition of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Back to Top

Clarence E. Patterson
National Vice President of Fraternity Affairs
clarence.patterson@alphanuomega.org

Back to Top

Starling M. Williams
National Vice President of Sorority Affairs
starling.williams@alphanuomega.org

Starling graduated with honors from Towson University in 1998. She was inducted into the Beta Chapter of Alpha Nu Omega in the Spring of 1996. During her membership in the Beta Chapter, she served as Chapter President and was instrumental in contributing to the development of leaders and helping the chapter have a stronger presence on campus. Since graduation, she has served as Regional Director of Member Affairs (RDMA) for the Baltimore/Washington Region and later, as the region grew and was split, RDMA for the DC Metro Region. As RDMA, Starling worked diligently to ensure that chapters within her care were fulfilling the mission of Alpha Nu Omega. During Starling's tenure as RDMA, she was also an active member of the Baltimore/Washington Alumni Chapter where she took joy in not only participating in the activities, but also in providing assistance when needed. Serving as National Vice President of Sorority Affairs, Starling strives to strengthen the sorority to become members who will take Alpha Nu Omega to the next level and who will continue to aid in the progress of this organization.

Back to Top

Juanita Long
National Vice President of Training and Development
juanita.long@alphanuomega.org

Juanita is a 2001 Psychology honors graduate of Morgan State University. She has been a member of Alpha Nu Omega since spring 1997. Since her induction, Juanita has been a dedicated member who has held various positions in the organization which are: Alpha Chapter Sorority Director of Ministry, Alpha Chapter Sorority President, B/W Alumni Vice President and Senior Advisor of Lambda Chapter Sorority (currently). Juanita believes that the mark of a great organization is their ability to effectively train and develop future leaders to successfully carry on the vision of the organization. During this administration, Juanita works to ensure that the members of Alpha Nu Omega have a firm grasp of the vision, mission, and purpose of this organization so that we can continue to be a thriving, effective, and impacting organization.

Back to Top

Nekia D. Jones
National Vice President of Expansion
neka.jones@alphanuomega.org

In 1992, Nekia enrolled in Morgan State University pursuing a degree in Computer Science. While at MSU, she met and bonded with several members of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. It was because of those covenant relationships, that she developed a great love for the ministry of ANQ and become a member in the fall of 1994. Nekia immediately became known as a leader, not only within ANQ, but also on the campus of Morgan State University. During her first year in ANQ she held the positions of chapter Vice-President and Director of Ministry. Shortly after, she was elected as the chapter President. After leaving Morgan State University, Nekia continued to grow as a leader in Alpha Nu Omega. She was elected as the Director of Ministry for the Baltimore/ Alumni chapter, where she facilitated the organization's first mentorship program at Halstead Academy. It was also during this time that Nekia became very instrumental in the chartering of several chapters within the organization. Nekia has also held the position of Regional Director of Membership Affairs for the Three Rivers Region and the Greater Baltimore Region. In the summer of 2002, Nekia was appointed to the position of National Treasurer for the organization. Currently, Nekia has the distinct honor of being a Senior Advisor for Theta Chapter Sorority.

As an ordained Elder, Nekia currently serves under the divine leadership of Bishop Ralph L. Dennis and Lady Deborah Dennis of Kingdom Worship Center in Towson, Maryland. It is because of her Evangelistic heart, that God has allowed her to carry the message of ANQ through expanding its territory in the earth. It is Nekia's sincere desires to see the fullness of God operating in the lives of every believer.

Back to Top

Cherie L. Nichols
National Recording Secretary
cherie.nichols@alphanuomega.org

Cherie L. Nichols became a member of Alpha Nu Omega, Incorporated in Spring 1998 at Beta Chapter. There, she served as Chapter Secretary until graduating from Towson University in 2000. Cherie has served a National Recording Secretary for the organization since 2001. She is currently an IT Specialist for the federal government and is pursuing her master's degree at University of Phoenix. Cherie is also a Lifetime Member of the organization.

Back to Top

Kenya N. Brown
National Corresponding Secretary
kenya.brown@alphanuomega.org

Kenya Gibson was inducted into Alpha Nu Omega on the campus of Morgan State University in 1990 and helped to establish the Beta chapter in 1991. She graduated from Morgan with a BS in Social Work in 1992 after returning from her honeymoon with her husband Curtis M. Brown. She proceeded to graduate school and obtained her MSW from University of Maryland in 1993. She spent the first seven years of her career working in private foster. During that time she brought forth three beautiful children, Jan-nay, Destiny and Justus. Currently Mrs. Brown works in a private high school as the school social worker. She also serves as a deacon at her church.

This is her third term in office as the National Corresponding Secretary of Alpha Nu Omega. She has also served as Parliamentarian of Alpha Chapter as an undergraduate student and Chartering Vice President of the Baltimore/Washington Alumni Chapter. Kenya is committed to order, communication, and excellence.

Back to Top

Ranae Jackson
National Director of Ministries
ranae.jackson@alphanuomega.org

Ranae Jackson was inducted into Alpha Nu Omega Inc. in the Spring of 1998. She served as Beta Chapter's Treasurer and then as Chapter President for two years. Ranae was appointed and served as the National Sorority Step Director for five years. In 2001 she was appointed as the Regional Director of Ministry for the Three Rivers Region and later served as the RDM for the Greater Baltimore Region. Ranae graduated from Towson University with honors in May 2001. After receiving her degree in Elementary Education, she returned to Prince Georges County to obtain a teaching position. She currently teaches first grade.

Ranae is a member at Jerusalem AME Church in Clinton, Maryland. She serves on the Ministerial Staff as the Director of the Youth Department, a missionary, class leader, and as the assistant director of Karah Dance Ministry. In March 2004, Ranae gave her initial sermon and was licensed as a minister. She currently attends Maple Springs Bible College and Seminary and is pursuing her Masters of Divinity.

Ranae is committed to continued service and growth within Alpha Nu Omega, Inc.

Back to Top

Femi Estrada-Petersen
National Historian
femi.epetersen@alphanuomega.org

Back to Top

Brian K. Johnson
National Public Relations Manager
brian.johnson@alphanuomega.org

Eagle Brother Brian K. Johnson joined Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. in Spring 1996 at the Alpha Chapter. He has been an active and financial member since his induction. While at Morgan State, he served as Secretary, Treasurer, and President of the Fraternity. In 1997, Brian became the first Lifetime Member of the organization and the first webmaster for the National Website. After he graduated from Morgan State University in 1999, Brian served briefly as the National Public Relations Manager. From 2000-2004, Eagle Brother Johnson served as the National 2nd Vice President. In December 2004, Brian married Dove Sister Angela (Thorpe) Johnson, and they are raising their 2-year old son, Brian Josiah in Pikesville, MD. Brian currently serves on the ministerial staff and assists with the Youth Ministries and Praise Team at the Mount Pleasant Church and Ministries. He also works as a Web Administrator through Northrup Grumman Corporation in Washington, DC. As Brian continues to serve God through Alpha Nu Omega, Inc., it is his desire that more people would grab hold to the true vision so that God may be glorified.

Back to Top

Derek LaBoo
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA) - Fraternity
Greater Baltimore Region
derek.laboo@alphanuomega.org

Derek M. LaBoo was inducted into Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. on October 28th, 2000 at the University of Maryland – College Park (Kappa Chapter). In 2002, Derek served as the Kappa Chapter Fraternity Director of Ministry. It was during the time at Kappa Chapter that Derek gained valuable leadership training and experience. In 2003, Derek graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology.

Since graduation, Derek has served as the Baltimore/Washington Alumni Chapter President, Greater Baltimore Chapter President, and is the current Bowie State University Fraternity Senior Advisor. In 2005, Derek received the Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. Member of the Year award.

Derek currently serves as the Youth Director at New Elizabeth Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. As he continues to serve in Alpha Nu Omega, Derek is passionate for men of God to understand their purpose and authority through a firm stance in the Word of God.

Back to Top

Shalyta LaBoo
Regional Liaison (RL) - Sorority
Greater Baltimore Region
shalyta.laboo@alphanuomega.org

Back to Top

John Mullen
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA) - Fraternity
DC Metro Region
john.mullen@alphanuomega.org

John Mullen became a member of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. in the spring of 2000 at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore (Epsilon Chapter), where he later received his Bachelors of Science degree in Agriculture Education. As a chartering member of the Epsilon Fraternity, John remained heavily involved with the treasury as his primary responsibility. However, post-undergrad took John away from the Mid-Atlantic region. It was not until 2005 that he was able to rejoin the ranks of ANQ as a RDMA when he returned to the region to pursue a graduate degree. He graduated from Howard University in May 2006 with a MBA, concentrating on Supply Chain Management.

Back to Top

Candice Bowie
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA) - Sorority
DC Metro Region
candice.bowie@alphanuomega.org

Candice Bowie was inducted into Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. in the Spring of 1999 from Towson University (Beta Chapter) in Towson, Maryland. While attending Towson University, Candice served as the Director of Ministry for the Beta Chapter of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. After graduating from Towson University with a Bachelor of Science, majoring in Health Care Management with a minor in Business Administration in May 2000, she was elected to serve as Senior Advisor for the University of Maryland, College Park (Kappa Chapter). In November of 2000, after being a general member of the Baltimore Washington Alumni Chapter, Candice was again elected to serve as the Director of Ministry.

While serving diligently as Senior Advisor for the University of Maryland, College Park and Director of Ministry for the Baltimore Washington Alumni Chapter, Candice was honored as Regional Member of the Year for 2001. With a desire to reach out to the entire DC Metro Region, Candice was later appointed in 2005 to serve as the Regional Director of Ministry and Administration for the DC Metro Region of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. Candice currently resides in Upper Marlboro, Maryland and attends the National Church of God in Fort Washington, Maryland, serving as a Prayer Warrior/Alter Worker.

Back to Top

Brian Ajayi
Regional Liaison - Fraternity
Delmar Region
brian.ajayi@alphanuomega.org

Back to Top

Stacey Suggs
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA) - Sorority
Delmar Region
stacey.suggs@alphanuomega.org

Stacey L. Suggs was inducted into Alpha Nu Omega Sorority, Inc. as a charter member of the Delta Chapter in the Spring of 1997, while attending Delaware State University where she was pursuing a degree in Early Childhood Education. After being inducted, she remained a leader on the chapter's executive board as the secretary. Due to her love and concern for the organization's growth, she traveled extensively to assist with the establishment of the Epsilon Chapter at University of Maryland Eastern Shore (UMES) in the Fall of 1997 and continues to assist each chapter where ever needed.

Back to Top

Jon V. Young
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA) - Fraternity
Garden State Region
jon.young@alphanuomega.org

Jon V. Young is a native of Temple Hills, in Prince George's County Maryland, and is a product of the Prince Georges County School System. Jon received his B.S. Degree "Marketing" in May of 2002 from Morgan State University in Baltimore, MD. While at Morgan Jon was a scholar and extremely involved in the development of the Morgan State University Community. Jon gained invaluable training and experience while serving the Student Government Association, Student Ambassador, Resident Assistant, Morgan State University Choir, Only Christ Ministries, Inc., and Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. just to name a few.

On April 7, 2001 Jon (#1ASP2K1- Eagle Brother "Perfect Attempt") was inducted in the family of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. Jon served as Alpha Fraternity Parliamentarian his last year at Morgan during the 2001-2002 school year. Upon graduation Jon relocated to Lawrenceville, New Jersey to begin his career with Pfizer Pharmaceuticals. Jon was an active member of the Baltimore/Washington Alumni Chapter while living in Lawrenceville, New Jersey.

In August of 2003 Jon accepted the appointment to become the Regional Director of Ministry & Administration for the unestablished Garden State Region. In addition to being the RDMA Jon also served as Senior advisor for the Nu & Xi Chapter of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. Currently Jon is the Regional Director of Fraternity Affairs for the Garden State Region, Xi Chapter Fraternity Senior Advisor and Director of Ministry for the Garden State Fraternity Alumni.

Back to Top

Jessica Moreland
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA) - Sorority
Garden State Region
jessica.moreland@alphanuomega.org

Jessica was inducted into Alpha Nu Omega in the fall of 2001 at the University of Maryland-College Park (Kappa Chapter). In 2002, she was elected President of the chapter and served in this position for two years. During the course of her term, Kappa Chapter was recognized as the 1st Place Service Organization (2003) and tripled its membership. Jessica was also recognized as one of the Top 10 Greek Leaders before graduating in 2004 with a B.A. degree in Communications/Public Relations.

As an alumni member, Jessica has remained active in Alpha Nu Omega. Having relocated to New Jersey, she was appointed as RDMA and is currently the Senior Advisor for Nu Chapter Sorority and Xi Chapter Sorority. She also assisted in the formation of the Garden State Alumni Chapter and serves as the chapter's Public Relations Manager.

Jessica is a past recipient of the Shirley K. Russell Academic Achievement Scholarship and the Undergraduate Sister of the Year Award for the Baltimore/Washington region. She loves serving the Lord through Alpha Nu Omega, and her heart's desire is to see the organization change the lives of those it touches.

Back to Top

Victor L. Foyles
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA) - Fraternity
Three Rivers Region
victor.foyles@alphanuomega.org

Victor was the first brother to be inducted into Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. after the founding. He received his Bachelor of Science in Psychology at Morgan State University in 1992. He is currently pursuing a Masters in Mental Health at Wright State University. Victor is currently employed as a children service case worker at Hamilton County Jobs and Family Services in Cincinnati, Ohio. As an elder at Higher Ground Ministries Family Center, Victor is the Director of the Single's Ministry and the Prison Ministry. Victor brings a host of professional and spiritual training to his position of RDMA.

Back to Top

TaNikka Sheppard
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA) - Sorority
Three Rivers Region
tanikka.sheppard@alphanuomega.org

Back to Top

Ashley Fowler
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA)
North Carolina Region
ashley.fowler@alphanuomega.org

Ashley LaTrice Fowler is a native of Burlington NC. In the spring of 2005, Ashley, along with 8 other students charted this first chapter of Alpha Nu Omega in North Carolina on the elegant campus of Winston Salem State University. Ashley served as charter secretary for the remainder of her time at the University. In December of 2005, Ashley graduated with Cum Laude honors with a degree in Rehabilitation Studies. In the spring of 2006 Ashley continued to make history in Alpha Nu Omega by becoming North Carolina's first Regional Director of Ministry and Administration. Currently, she is pursuing a Masters of Social Work Degree. This is being obtained through the joint Masters of Social Work Program of North Carolina A&T State University and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Ashley's ultimate goal is to practice as a clinical social worker and to become a phenomenal motivational speaker. Ashley's pleasant spirit and optimistic personality enables her to empower individuals to strive to their utmost potential in life.

Back to Top

Courtney VanBrakle, Ph.D
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA)
Southern Florida Region
courtney.vanbrakle@alphanuomega.org

Courtney was inducted into Beta Chapter at Towson University in the Spring of 1996. In her interview, she stated that she was going to transfer the following semester but was interested in starting a chapter at the University of MD Eastern Shore. In the Fall of 1997, she oriented five ladies which established the Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Nu Omega, Inc. She then graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Rehabilitation Services in December 1998. Following graduation, she returned back home to Washington, DC and began working in the Baltimore/ Washington Alumni Chapter as the fund raising chair. In the Summer of 2000, she decided to go to Florida to pursue a degree in Physical Therapy at Nova Southeastern University where she obtained a Masters and Doctorate Degree in Physical Therapy in 2002 and 2003, respectively. She decided to stay in Florida and is currently working as a Physical Therapist in a Level II Trauma Hospital in Fort Myers, Florida.

In 2005, she was instrumental in assisting in the organization's expansion to Florida Atlantic University, now Omicron Chapter, and was appointed to be the Regional Director of Ministry and Administration of South Florida. She is currently the Omicron Sorority Advisor and a member of the Expansion team with the focus for Florida. From the beginning, Courtney has always thought that the concept of a Christian alternative was a good idea and has since made it her objective to take and share this good idea with her wherever she goes.

Back to Top

Terri Cann
Regional Director of Ministry & Administration (RDMA)
Empire State Region
terri.cann@alphanuomega.org

Terri was recently inducted into the Alpha Nu Omega family in the spring of 2006. Shortly after she was recommended for the position of Regional Director. Terri graduated from St. John's University in 2005, with a B.A. in Communication Arts. She is currently pursuing her Masters in Education Administration. Although in school, her passion truly lies in the arts. She is an actress who has acted in several off Broadway gospel plays and is presently working on her solo debut gospel album. Terri has always been a leader. In 2003, she started a non-profit Christian organization entitled the Unity Christian Performing Arts Center which comprises of dance, singing, acting, and stepping. She has been the minister of music since the age of 16 at her parent's church in Brooklyn, New York. Terri thanks God for the favor and opportunity of this position, especially so quickly and is excited to see God's manifestation of this awesome organization in the Empire State Region.

Back to Top

Olney May Edmondson
Regional Liaison (RL)
Lone Star State Region
olney.edmondson@alphanuomega.org

Back to Top