

LECTORS

The reader (Lector) proclaims God's word to the assembled faith community. The Lector has the awesome privilege of bringing the printed word to life. At St. Joseph's, the Lectors proclaim the readings and offertory invocation at all Sunday and Holyday Masses. They also read for certain liturgies; the Penance Service, for example. Individual preference is considered when the schedules are prepared, and there is training and guidance.

To join this special ministry, please contact: Ann Trotter (215) 672-4651, via email at aatrot@aol.com